

Author: Lynn Plourde
School: Chelsea Elementary School

Visit Reflection: “Lynn Plourde knows how to bring the author out of students of every age!! She was amazing with the students and had them laughing and thinking about writing. For weeks since her visit I have had students telling me about stories they are working on or hope to work on this summer. In library I am able to build off themes she began, such as looking for word and action patterns, which the kids love.” - April M. Gay, Ed Tech III Library, May 10, 2017
