

Author: Lynn Plourde

School: Madawaska School District

Visit Reflection: “Lynn Plourde has ties to the valley in that her “Peperé” grew up in Frenchville. Students and staff dressed up to celebrate Lynn’s book “You’re Wearing THAT to School?!” . Lynn read this book to the students and asked the teachers to parade around the cafeteria for the students to see how they were dressed...Lynn then met with different classrooms and helped them, through a lesson, to understand how a story can be put together. At the end of the day she met with grades 4, 5 & 6 to talk about her new chapter book titled “Maxi’s Secrets”, which is now in its 5th printing (paperback version) and it has only been out since August! In the days since Lynn’s visit many students have expressed how thankful they are that the library was able to bring Lynn to our school. Some students also asked when she is coming back for another visit.” - Deborah Lavoie, Madawaska District Librarian

